

POSTER PRESENTATIONS

Paper Number	First Name	Last Name	Organization	Country	Paper Title	Theme	Sub Theme
13	Caroline	De Brún	Public Health England	United Kingdom	Finding the evidence: Health inequalities, equality and diversity	6. Technology
22	Anthea	Sutton	The University of Sheffield	United Kingdom	Co-design and shared delivery: working with partner organisations to meet the training needs of the health library and knowledge workforce	2. Education & Learning	e) The librarian as teacher / trainer / researcher / publisher
23	Varvara	Kountouzi	Biomedical Library, University Of Pennsylvania	United States	3D Printing at a health sciences library	6. Technology	b) Emerging Technologies / Tech Trends
25	Barbara	Epstein	University of Pittsburgh Health Sciences Library System	United States	A comparative study of leadership development programs in major academic and health sciences library associations in the United States	4. Leadership and Values
28	Elizabeth	Barrett	National Institute For Health & Care Excellence	United Kingdom	The development, validation and use of MEDLINE and Embase geographic search filters to retrieve evidence about the United Kingdom (UK) for systematic literature searches	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship	e) Developing the role of librarians in systematic reviews.
35	Louise	Preston	University Of Sheffield	United Kingdom	Developing search strategies to search for evidence on equality and diversity	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship	a) Producing new research-based evidence for our profession

45	Sarah	Kennedy	Royal College of Surgeons of England		Unmasking Sir Patrick Dun's Library	6. Technology	e) The connected world
46	David	Ozura	Institute Of Oncology Ljubljana, Special Library	Slovenia	Embedded Health Librarianship in Slovenia: Current Practice and Challenges	3. Integration	a) Clinical/Embedded Librarianship
49	Federica	Napolitani	Istituto Superiore di Sanità	Italy	A new step forward in the use of CoBRA guideline	6. Technology	c) Metrics
60	Bethany	McGowan	Purdue University	United States	Information Design and Universal Design Strategies for Teaching and Presenting Complex Health Information to Diverse Learners	2. Education & Learning
64	Ruth	Foxlee	Cochrane	United Kingdom	Cochrane's Centralised Search Service: where information specialists' skills, technology and people power meet	6. Technology
69	Sue	Lacey Bryant	Health Education England	United Kingdom	Using driver diagrams as a strategic planning tool for library and knowledge services to drive Knowledge for Healthcare in England	4. Leadership and Values	c) Strategic management
82	Petra	Svanborg	Umeå University Medical Library	Sweden	"How cool is THIS?" : 3D printing at the Medical Library of Umeå University	6. Technology	b) Emerging Technologies / Tech Trends
83	Marie	Carrigan	St. Luke's Radiation Oncology Network	Ireland	Healthy Reading: the utilisation of a bibliotherapy service in a cancer hospital	1. Consumer Health

85	Danielle	Rabb	Cadth	Canada	Conducting a Citation Management Software Evaluation for Systematic Reviews: A Librarian's Guide	6. Technology
86	Fiona	Lawler	Our Lady's Hospice and Care Services	Ireland	Evaluating the effectiveness of a librarian led workshop in a health services environment	2. Education & Learning
87	Malin	Ekstrand	Danderyds University Hospital	Sweden	"Rise to the Challenge!" - Library Support In Hospital E-Learning	2. Education & Learning
92	Wichor	Bramer	Erasmus MC	Netherlands	Using major thesaurus terms or title and abstract only terms in embase and medline search strategies for systematic reviews: the probability of losing relevant references	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship	e) Developing the role of librarians in systematic reviews.
93	Maurella	Della Seta	Istituto Superiore di Sanità	Italy	Information specialist contribution to patient-oriented health information: sailing the seas of health literacy over the years	1. Consumer Health	c) Librarians' roles in developing and delivering health literacy initiatives and influencing health literacy policy (nationally or locally)
97	Martine	Oudenhoven	LIBER Europe	Netherlands	The Next Step for Open Science is Text and Data Mining	6. Technology	a) Big Data/Open Data
98	Mauro	Mazzocut	Cro Aviano National Cancer Institute	Italy	The librarian as an antidote: recognizing the misinformation online to improve the educational reference for patients	1. Consumer Health	e) Assess quality resources for patient information and consumer health

99	Juan	Talens-Bou	NIHR CLAHRC South West Peninsula (PenCLAHRC)	United Kingdom	How do animal filters affect a search involving zoonotic diseases? An evaluation of search filter performance in encephalitis.	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship
108	Marte	Ødegaard	University Of Oslo, Medical Library	Norway	Reference interview for systematic review searches	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship	e) Developing the role of librarians in systematic reviews.
113	Ann	Ritchie	Barwon Health	Australia	Census of Australian Health Librarians and Library and Information Services (LIS) by Health Libraries Australia (HLA)	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship
114	Jasmin	Schmitz	ZB MED - Information Centre for Life Sciences	Germany	Online Services for the Evaluation of (Open Access) Journals	6. Technology	d) Open Access and repositories
115	Eirik	Reierth	Uit The Arctic University Of Norway	Norway	Shifting perspectives of information literacy teaching. From the "Hows", to the "Whys".	2. Education & Learning	c) Innovative information literacy (IL) pedagogy in research and practice, Curriculum-integrated/embedded IL approaches and assessment
122	Inge	Discart	KU Leuven (Belgium)	Belgium	2BIC: take your adventuring gear and organise popular pop-up information literacy sessions at your library	2. Education & Learning

126	Petra	Meeson	Uhcw Nhs Trust	United Kingdom	Meeting the Evidence Based needs of nurses and midwives with a wide range of searching skills in an acute teaching hospital	2. Education & Learning	e) The librarian as teacher / trainer / researcher / publisher
135	Irma	Klerings	Danube University Krems	Austria	Assessing the validity of abbreviated search approaches for rapid reviews	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship	a) Producing new research-based evidence for our profession
136	Delyth	Morris	Cardiff University	United Kingdom	Survey to inform the delivery of continuing education courses in EAHIL 2018: evidence based librarianship in practice	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship
143	Cate	Newell	Royal Devon & Exeter NHS Foundation Trust	United Kingdom	Showcasing Trust research outputs: launching a freely accessible institutional research publications repository at the Royal Devon & Exeter NHS Foundation Trust	6. Technology	d) Open Access and repositories
145	Camilla	Söderquist	SLU University Library	Sweden	A web-based course for doctoral students presented by the SLU University Library	2. Education & Learning	a) Digital literacy / digital pedagogy
147	Hannah	Wood	York Health Economics Consortium	United Kingdom	Information resources used in published systematic reviews of economic evaluations	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship	a) Producing new research-based evidence for our profession
148	Hannah	Wood	York Health Economics Consortium	United Kingdom	Performance of search filters to identify studies reporting health state utility values	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship	a) Producing new research-based evidence for our profession

167	Tatyana	Kaigorodova	WHO Documentation Centre Based On The Federal Research Institute For Health Organization And Information	Russian Federation	Disseminating World Health Organization information to ensure better integration of consumer groups	3. Integration	c) Collaboration
172	Gaby	Caro Salazar	World Health Organization	Suiza	Impact of Hinari after marketing campaign (April 2015 to July 2016)	6. Technology
173	Carl	Gornitzki	Karolinska Institutet University Library	Sweden	Examining systematic review projects in a university setting: a structured approach	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship	e) Developing the role of librarians in systematic reviews.
174	Amanda	Wanner	Penclahrc, Plymouth University	United Kingdom	Medline Transpose: A new tool for converting search syntax between interfaces	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship	e) Developing the role of librarians in systematic reviews.
175	Giuse	Ardita	Istituto Superiore Di Sanità	Italy	Predatory Publishing: who will save Little Red Riding Hood from the Big Bad Wolf?	6. Technology	d) Open Access and repositories
176	Wendy	Marsh	Public Health England	United Kingdom	Public health practice examples	1. Consumer Health	a) Best practice in Consumer Health initiatives
182	Alicia Fátima	Gómez-Sánchez	University of Hertfordshire	United Kingdom	What if we implement recommendations for information retrieval in systematic reviews? -- A comparison of reporting guidelines for systematic reviews.	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship

183	Consider	Mudenda	Foc/zrdta	Zambia	Towards an Internationally Transferable Model for Translating Knowledge into Action in Front line Care in Zambia and Scotland	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship
184	Consider	Mudenda	Foc/zrdta	Zambia	Strengthening Emergency Care Information and Communications in Chitambo District, Central Zambia	6. Technology	b) Emerging Technologies / Tech Trends
185	Iris Maria De Souza	Carvalho	National Cancer Institute Jose Alencar Gomes Da Silva	Brazil	Training in literature search: experience with multiprofessional class National Cancer Institute José Alencar Gomes da Silva	2. Education & Learning
186	Alexa	Mayo	University Of Maryland Hshsl	United States	Research Connection: Advancing the Success of the Research Enterprise	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship	b) Removing barriers to integrating research into practice
188	Mauro	Mazzocut	Cro Aviano National Cancer Institute	Italy	ETHIC - Evaluation Tool of Health Information for Consumers. Moving towards validation. First results.	1. Consumer Health	e) Assess quality resources for patient information and consumer health
191	Saba	Motta	Fondazione IRCCS Istituto Neurologico C. Besta	Italy	From First World War Neurology to Web 2.0: a new library website dedicated to historical heritage	2. Education & Learning	d) Medical Humanities
193	Anne	Madden	St. Vincent's University Hospital	Ireland	Quality-checking our resources: UpToDate or out of step?	4. Leadership and Values	d) Use of quality assurance and improvement techniques
195	Riccardo	Ferrari	Cineca	Italy	A software for empowering integration of library networks	3. Integration
197	Chiara	Formigoni	SBBL	Italy	Sharing is still a value?	3. Integration

207	Alicia Fátima	Gómez-Sánchez	University of Hertfordshire	United Kingdom	Evaluating the impact of open research data using altmetrics	6. Technology	c) Metrics
211	Mauro	Mazzocut	Cro Aviano National Cancer Institute	Italy	CROinforma – Patient Education Handout: health librarian as glue between authors and readers	1. Consumer Health	a) Best practice in Consumer Health initiatives
214	Lilian	Hoffecker	University Of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus	United States	Journals in Non-English Languages	3. Integration	c) Collaboration
215	Caitriona	Honohan	Trinity College Dublin	Ireland	The Information-Seeking Behaviour of Advisers to Policy-Makers for Homelessness in Ireland	5. Research & Evidence Based Librarianship
217	Alicia Fátima	Gómez-Sánchez	University of Hertfordshire	United Kingdom	The librarian as University teacher. An informational skills training experience in Nursing Degree.	2. Education & Learning	e) The librarian as teacher / trainer / researcher / publisher
218	Esther	Carrigan	Texas A&m University	United States	Integrating Special Collections and their Spaces Physically and Virtually	3. Integration	e) Use of physical or online spaces
227	Gaetana	Cognetti	Regina Elena National Cancer Institute	Italy	Medical Libraries and Narrative Medicine: an observational study	1. Consumer Health	